

Dr. Mustafa MORKOYUN

Flight Surgeon, Born in 1964 in Garipçe village, İncesu district, Kayseri, Türkiye. He completed his primary education in Hamburg, his secondary education at Kadı Burhanettin Middle School, and his high school education at Kayseri High School. He entered Erciyes University Faculty of Medicine in 1982. Upon graduation, he started working as a physician at the Erciyes University Rectorate. In 1999, he started working at the General Directorate of State Airports Authority. He served as branch manager and department head at the General Directorate of Airports Authority. He completed his Aviation Medicine training in 2005. He serves on the boards of directors of the Turkish Aviation Medicine Association and the Turkish Aviation and Space Medical Platform Association. He has given many presentations on aviation health at national and international congresses. He has published articles and presentations on the working conditions and ergonomics of air traffic controllers and other aviation personnel. Outside of the aviation field, he holds board memberships in many associations and unions. He is married and has one child. He received pilot training along with his wife and son. He is the author of the book "Introduction to Latin Language for Medical Students and Physicians". He speaks German and English.